

I. Answer the following questions:

5x2=10

1. What shift in human perception has been seen as a result of the Green Movement?
2. Which work of shahid had made a great impression on the narrator? Why?
3. Why did shahid go to India every year? How did it affect him?
4. Justify the title of the article by Nani Parkhivala.
5. Why is earth said to be an ailing planet?

II. Answer the following questions in detail:

3x5=15

6. In the title of the chapter, "The Ghat of the only world", what is the meaning and significance of the title.
7. How do fisheries, forests, grasslands and croplands form the foundation of the global economic system.
8. As a society, what kind of environment are we offering to our future generations? With reference to the chapter 'The Ailing planet: The Green Movements Role', discuss what problems human beings are passing on to their future generations.