

04.07.19

EVERWIN VIDHYASHRAM

STD: IV

EVS T.T

MARKS: 20

I. Answer in short:

5x4=20

1. What is moulting?
2. What is habitat?
3. Define reproduction?
4. How do the baby elephants enjoy?
5. What do you mean by predators?

Answer key

1. The process of shedding of old skin or shells is known as moulting.
2. The place where an animal lives to obtain food and get shelters is known as its habitat.
3. All living organisms produce other organism similar to themselves. This process is known as reproduction.
4. The baby elephants enjoy by playing with mud and water from the river bank.
5. Animals that hunt other animals for their food are called predators.