

05.07.2019

EVERWIN VIDHYASHRAM

Marks: 20

STD: VI

TT – ENGLISH

Time: 40mins

I. Answer Key:

1. Claws
2. A bird of prey
3. In confusion
4. Struggled
5. Anxitey

II. Annotation:

1. a) 'I' referred to the poet
b) Apprehension means 'fear that something bad may happen'.
2. a) He was lucky because he escaped from the race of fearsome creatures.
b) 'Elude' means escape.

III. Answer in short:

1. A giant Anaconda started winding up his side so he ran down the stairs.
2. He was rescued by an eagle that descended from the skies.
3. The poet sat at his bed room with a notebook open wide in order to write his homework.
4. No, the poet said all imaginative and unreal happenings for not doing his homework.
5. There were tigers after him and he could feel them growing closer. So the poet blundered into quicksand.